A good induction is essential for all staff to feel welcome and included in Hertsmere Jewish Primary School.

All new staff to the school will receive induction training that will include the school's safeguarding policies, child protection procedures and guidance on safe working practices. The Deputy DSP will provide a child protection safeguarding session if appropriate training is not up to date. All new staff will receive a copy of the staff Code of Conduct. Adherence to this code is expected and breaches may result in formal disciplinary action.

New staff will meet with Mrs Cant in order to complete a Hertsmere Jewish Primary School induction checklist. They will be given an induction pack containing relevant information. All new members of staff are issued with a copy of the latest Staff Handbook which contains the Staff Absence Policy and relevant Health & Safety information. Every member of staff has a named locker, pigeon hole in the staff room and is provided with a Hertsmere Jewish Primary School email address. Personal records are kept for each member of staff, with relevant medical details and emergency contacts.

New members of teaching staff are invited to come into School prior to their start date to meet with the person they are replacing and to meet their new class. Time is allocated for "hand-over" meetings in order to discuss curriculum and the needs of the children, as well as meeting line managers.

All students on work placement at HJPS will also meet with Mrs Cant to complete a HJPS induction checklist.

Parent volunteers will have a short induction with Miss Rubin. She will outline the guidelines for parents

Attached in Appendix 1 is a copy of the induction checklist.

Appendix 2

When and what might I be concerned about?

At any time you may be concerned about information which suggests a child is being neglected or experiencing physical, emotional or sexual harm.

You may observe physical signs, notice changes in the child's behaviour or presentation, pick up signs of emotional distress or have a child disclose a harmful experience to you.

Harm to a child can be caused by:

A parent/carer
A family member/friend
Another child
A stranger
A member of staff/volunteer *

What should I do if a child discloses that s/he is being harmed?

1. Listen

Listen carefully to what is being said to you, do not interrupt.

2. Reassure

Reassure the pupil that it is not their fault. Stress that it was the right thing to tell. Be calm, attentive and non-judgemental. Do not promise to keep what is said a secret. Ask non-leading questions (TED) to clarify if necessary:

Tell me more...

Explain that to me...

Describe what happened....

Then follow the steps in the flowchart to the right.

The information you have may not be enough on its own for a Child Protection referral, however it will help your DSP to make a decision about risk of harm to the child.

What must I do?

Recognise your concern

Respond - inform your DSP/Deputy DSP without delay (or Head Teacher/Chair of Governors where appropriate*)

Make a written record (using the child's own words), sign and date it

Pass the record to the DSP/deputy DSP (where appropriate) *

What should I do if the alleged abuser is a member of the school staff?

If your concern is about a staff member or volunteer, you should report this to the Head Teacher. If your concern is about the Head Teacher, you should report such allegations to the Chair of Governors. Contact details can be found on the back of this leaflet.

How do I ensure my behaviour is always appropriate?

Please ask a member of the Senior Leadership Team for school guidance regarding Safer Working Practice. The DSCF have also produced guidance entitled 'Safer Working Practice for Adults who work with Children and Young People in Education Settings' (2009). This publication can be found on the Hertfordshire Grid for Learning.
